Elk Point joins hosts of RMHCNA Winterland Invitational

BY ROBYNNE HENRY
 Review Contributor

Minor hockey players donned red and white striped socks for the Ronald McDonald House Charities Northern Alberta's (RMHCNA) second annual Winterland Invitational.

A total of 36 atom, novice, and pee wee hockey teams from across the region gathered in Bonnyville, Glendon, and Elk Point to take part in the tournament, which ran Friday, Feb. 15 to Sunday, Feb. 17. Proceeds from the weekend will go toward providing services at the Ronald McDonald House.

According to Oreen Skiba, stakeholder relations manager for the Lakeland region for the RMHCNA, the tournament saw substantial growth since the first event.

THEY'VE GOT STRIPES - You can't tell the teams by their socks, but last Saturday morning's Atom match-up in Elk Point was between Bonnyville Pontiacs 1 (black jerseys) and Whitemud West Hornets.

Former landfill is Elk Point's issue, County CAO says

MEREDITH KERR
 Review Contributor

A historic landfill in the Elk Point area will require new dirt to be placed above it, according to a letter from Alberta Parks and Environment received by the County of St. Paul before their Feb. 12 council meeting.

"This landfill was located in the County of St. Paul, but in their assessment they have deemed the Town of Elk Point operated this landfill on lands leased from a previous owner of the property where it was located," said Sheila Kitz, the chief administrative officer for the county.

The landfill is located at S-25-56-7-W4. While operational, it was authorized under the Public Health Act. The landfill closed in 1990 but according to Kitz, under Alberta's Environmental Protection and Enhancement Act, "the previous operator of a historic landfill remains the responsible person for the waste surfacing and subsistence issues identified on site including maintaining the cap."

Kitz said the county is anticipating a request from Elk Point to help with the equipment, trucks, and work required for the land. She did not have an estimate available for how much dirt would be needed.

"There's two options we could look at. One, it's going to cost us money to haul and cover the pit, or we could haul it out," said Coun. Kevin Wirsta. "There'd certainly be a difference in cost, but I'd like to know what those costs are going to be."

"The obligation is that we cap it. Is the landowner OK with that or does he want to share some of the costs? Right now, all it's good for is a parking lot, a staging area for trucks," said Reeve Steve Upham.

"They could come back to that guy 10 or 15 years from now and say "clean that up" and he gives the land to the county and we've got to deal with that," said Coun. Dale Hedrick.

High school teams take medals at Zones

JANICE HUSER
Review Contributor

St. Paul Regional High School came away with a gold, silver and bronze medal following two days of competition at the St. Paul Curling Rink for the NEASAA Zone Curling Championship.

The boys' team took gold, beating Westwood Community High School from Fort McMurray in the final match-up, by a score of 9-3. The Two Hills School boys' team took part in the bronze medal game Thursday evening, losing to Innisfree by a score of 8-6.

On the girls' side, the gold medal game would see J. R. Robson from Vermilion take the gold medal, with Notre Dame (Bonnyville) taking silver. The St. Paul Regional High School girls took part in the bronze medal game, beating Cold Lake by a score of 9-1.

St. Paul would also make it to the finals in the mixed playoffs, taking on Kitscoty for the gold medal, but a tight 8-7 game would leave St. Paul with silver medals. The F. G. Miller team out of Elk Point would win the bronze medal game against E.H. Walter School (Paradise Valley), by a score of 7-4.

St. Paul is now looking forward to hosting ASAA curling provincial from March 7 to 9.

Two arrested after Frog Lake home invasion

ELK POINT RCMP

On Feb. 17, 2019, Elk Point RCMP in collaboration with Cold Lake Police Dog Services (PDS) and Eastern Alberta District Rural Crime Reduction Unit (EADRCRU) arrested two suspects stemming from an investigation into a home invasion in Frog Lake.

On Feb. 16, RCMP responded to a report of a home invasion at a residence in Frog Lake. Several items were also stolen during the incident. Police conducted an initial investigation and identified two suspects.

On Feb. 17, Elk Point RCMP and EADRCRU arrested the two suspects in Fishing Lake believed to be involved with the home invasion.

Following the arrest, EADRCRU located the vehicle used in the robbery and located stolen property inside. Further evidence was collected which resulted in police executing a search warrant with the assistance of Cold Lake PDS at separate residence in Fishing Lake. Stolen property from the robbery was recovered including a TV, credit cards, personal identification, ammunition as well as property from other incidents.

"Teamwork between police officers and tips from the public are key to the success of our operations," says Constable Guillaume Wilson (EADRCRU). "We will continue to conduct these joint operations and track down offenders committing these types of crimes in our communities."

A 32-year-old male from Fishing Lake and a 26-year-old Lloydminster woman are charged with several Criminal Code offences which include: robbery with a firearm, breaking and entering, possession of a weapon for a dangerous purpose, pointing a firearm, mischief and unauthorized possession of a firearm.

The male was remanded into custody following a judicial hearing. The woman was released following after a judicial hearing.

Both of the accused were scheduled to appear in St. Paul Provincial Court on Feb. 21, 2019.

Interagency catches up

VICKI BROOKER
Review Staff

Elk Point and District Interagency Health and Wellness Committee (IHWC) met last week with no representatives of the healthcare community on hand due to other commitments, but still had an opportunity to catch up on recent activities from the other groups.

County of St. Paul Division 2 Coun. Kevin Wirsta reported that major water leaks on the line from St. Paul had resulted in the heads being replaced, with the bill for repairs sent to the line's engineering firm. "And we're going to get reimbursed for the cost," good news for both town and county.

More good news came from in a report from Annette Bugnet of CPP Environmental, which said the county is in good shape regarding wildfire danger. "We have a few hot spots where we back onto crown land," Wirsta said, but overall, "it's a nice report." He was enthusiastic about Elk Point's new fire chief, who's giving the department "a whole new look, and a whole itinerary. It looks very positive."

Looking around at those in attendance, Wirsta had a suggestion, "from a meeting point of view. The Community Advisory Policing Committee (CAPC) and Interagency Health and Wellness both have many of the same people, and for all of us, these are all important, key components." He later moved to hold joint meetings of the IHWC with the CAPC, and to send a letter to the Fire Department inviting a representative to attend.

Levina Ewasiuk, who represents the senior population on both committees felt holding joint meetings would be "good collaboration."

Ewasiuk expressed concerns with the Health Care Centre, which she says is "very busy, but lacking in rehabilitation, both physio and occupational therapy. Rehab is a very important part of recovery, so this is a big concern." She also worries about the future of the health care centre, because it doesn't have any specialization, as hospitals in other nearby communities do. She feels geriatrics, and working with First Nations communities in the area to determine their needs would be beneficial and "do things to meet the needs of the people that use it."

On the other hand, IHWC chair Margaret Modin feels the health care centre "is providing something special, in that you can see a doctor when you need to. I'm very thankful for that."

Terry Shankowski, representing the County of St. Paul and Elk Point FCSS at the meeting, agreed with the need for physiotherapy and noted that "seniors are living longer, and they need physio. I'm always trying to find rides (to facilities offering that) for them."

In her FCSS report, Shankowski said that the program offering assistance with income tax starts March 1, and that three volunteers from the town office have joined two volunteers from St. Paul to help the seniors with this annual necessity. It is important to offer the service locally, she said, as "a lot of people have no way to get anywhere to do these things."

The final FCSS trip was held Feb. 14, taking seniors to the new provincial museum, and that series will wind up with a Lunch Box Social at the Lake Bellevue Hall on April 12, where those who have enjoyed the series of adventures can get together for one last time and share their experiences.

Think PINK this Wednesday - and 'Choose Kindness'

Pink Shirt Day is tomorrow, and although our community and its schools don't appear to have the same emphasis on this event as in recent years, doesn't mean that the problem of bullying has gone away.

Anyone who has been bullied as a child, teen or adult knows that bullying is wrong and that every effort should be made to stop it in its tracks before it destroys more lives and makes more people feel that they are not worthy of respect and compassion.

This year's Pink Shirt Day Alberta 2019 theme is centered around making an effort to "CHOOSE KINDNESS" as a way to support bullying prevention programs in schools and our community.

After all the good experiences we have witnessed in the past few years, we must not let the great example this event's leaders set be forgotten. Please, Wear PINK and CHOOSE KINDNESS on Feb. 27.

RECREATION CORNER

Family Day great, now let's plan Canada Day!

CRISTIN TCHIR
Recreation Coordinator

Where can you go and get free food and free activities? Answer...it was at the Free Family Fun Day! This past Family Day at the arena was a HIT! Free skating, free food and free activities. A big Thank You goes out to Elk Point EC DC, they set up a play room filled with toys, beads for bracelet making, colouring, painting and a photo booth. Thank you, Paige Skarsen! Paige sat for three hours painting puppies, bumble bees, princess crowns, tigers and more on the faces excited children. She really made their day!

Thank you Cornerstone Co-op in Elk Point for generously sponsoring this event! On the grill we had Sherry Oszust, and Counselor Debra McQuinn, together they cooked up burgers and hot dogs. Marguerite Friesen was there to serve, while Diane Piefer took your orders and offered you coffee or hot chocolate, on the house, of course. Toni May helped with the clean up so we could all get home and spend time with our families, on Family Day. Thank YOU, Recreation Committee volunteers, without your commitment, dedication and time this event would not have taken place.

This brings me to my next topic, Volunteerism, what exactly does that mean?

"Volunteerism is the practice of providing skills for the benefit of other people and causes, volunteering in your community is important, it enriches us, brings us together, helps keeps businesses and organizations afloat".

With that said, you can see why it is so important to volunteer, we need you, our community needs you, the Canada Day committee needs you. Are you new to the Elk Point area? Want to meet people? Join us, we are friendly, and we welcome you! No previous experience is needed I'm a newbie too! We meet March 4th at 7:30 in Council Chambers, that's at the Town of Elk Point office. I hope to see some new faces, mark your calendar!

WAY BACK WHEN...

Road show, FCSS funding, fired health board, perfect scores

HERE'S THE NEWS THAT MADE THE HEADLINES OF THE LAKELAND REVIEW AND ELK POINT REVIEW FOR THE WEEK OF FEB 25 IN...

1989

Alberta Culture and Multiculturalism's 'traveling road show' on historic sites was featured at the Chamber of Commerce annual meeting, where president Vicki Brooker, vice-president Bill Tremblay, secretary Gail Kozicky and treasurer Lauri Leaf were elected by acclamation. A community channel came to Elk Point's cable television, with Lawrence Pidluzny in charge of programming and the broadcast emanating from the computer room at F. G. Miller High School.

1994

The future of Family and Community Support Services (FCSS) was in question after the Klein government confirmed that FCSS funding would be given to Municipal Affairs to dole out to municipalities to spend as they wish. Chamber of commerce president Victor Stepa was concerned with the hospital board's decision to join the region to the south and plans to invite board chair John Mohyluk to an upcoming meeting to explain the reasons behind the choice.

1999

The firing of the Lakeland Regional Health board brought mixed reactions, that drastic move coming after consultants George B. Cuff and Associates conducted an extensive review of health care facilities and services in the region. Elk Point Leos Club received their charter, the 12 members led by president Rayna Sanregret, vice president Amanda Frisby, secretary Jena Bassett and treasurer Crystal Smith.

2004

Former treasurer Rod Randall became the new chamber of commerce president, replacing Jonny

Nielsen, and Dwayne Vogel was named vice-president, Randall reporting that 45 members had already signed up for the year, well above the 2003 total of 38. F. G. Miller Grade 12 student John Braga received perfect scores on his Pure Math 30 and Physics 30 departmental exams, and said his achievement required "a lot of dedication and brute force."

2009

Juniors Nicole Tymofichuk and Nolan Vogel, intermediates Darren Tymofichuk and Kayla Gibson and seniors Robyn Ockerman and Alanna Ockerman were the winners in Elk Point 4-H Multi Club's annual speak-off, while Alexis Bristow, Ashley Bristow and Cassandra Glambeck had top presentations. President Sandy Smith, vice-president Lesia Porcina and secretary Vicki Brooker were returned by acclamation at the Elk Point Chamber of Commerce annual meeting, but there were no takers for the treasurer's position.

Greater Lakeland Rural Crime Watch (GLRCW) is off to a new year as extra eyes and ears for crime prevention, with the passage of a revised set of bylaws and a new St. Paul RCMP liaison member joining the group at last week's annual general meeting.

'OPEN YOUR HEART' organizers Twila Stafford, Lori Poitras, Faye Poitras, Lionel Romanchuk, Tina Henderson, Patricia and Rick Rybchinsky presented a $21,233.94 message of community support to Natalie Hunter, third from right, to help the Hunter family cope with expenses resulting from a Jan. 19 car crash in which their teenage daughter Kaitlyn received serious injuries.

Provincials playoffs, preparation underway

Midget Avalanche defeats Cold Lake Ice to advance to next playoff round

Not a lot of action this past week, but some really key games all the same.

The Midget Avalanche faced off against the Cold Lake Ice in the second round of provincial round robins. The Ice and Avalanche know each other very well, playing in the same tier of the North East League the last few years, so naturally there can be a little bit of chirping back and forth and some rough stuff after the whistle on the ice. And as we all know, midget games are always interesting to say the least. The Avalanche are on the top of the tier two league, the Ice at the very bottom, although the Ice does have some really talented players in the line up. The Avalanche knowing this may have psychologically thought they had this series in the bag and taken the first game a little lightly.

Game one was up in Cold Lake on Wednesday night and the boys found themselves down 6 to 4 after 40 minutes. Jaden 'Jet Stream' Van Maaron was leaving everyone else in his vapor trail, scoring all of the first four goals for the Avalanche. A natural hat trick plus one to boot. It would be safe to say he has recovered from his groin injury. In the third period, after a mild discussion in the dressing room I'm sure; the rest of the team finally woke up and realized that just maybe we better start taking the Ice seriously, the final score 8 to 6 for the Avalanche, giving them a two-goal cushion. Team captain Nick 'Sparky' Anderson, 'King Cole' Bendixen and Charlie 'Chuckles' Rogal all scoring in the third, 'Sparky' with four assists, 'Lightning Liam' Ludlage with three assists, veteran forward Dusty Pankiw, and the unsung heroes on defense, Evan 'Batman' Ockerman and Jace the 'Stafford Streak' with one helper each.

The second game held in Elk Point on the very next night the building was packed with fans in anticipation of a good close game. The boys once again looked a little sluggish to start the game and the Ice took advantage of this, scoring a goal early in the first period to make the series interesting closing the gap to one goal.

Close to the end of the period Hayden 'Hot Wheels' Ludlage finally opened the scoring for the Avalanche, banging in a nice one timer on the power play. The game with some very tight checking, the score one-all after the first period, the second period things starting to heat up and the penalty boxes starting to fill up, the Avalanche scoring one short handed by 'Hot Wheels', the momentum now swinging their way after that. 'King Cole' and 'Sparky' adding goals, the score 4 to 1 for the Avalanche after 40 minutes. In the third period, the Ice desperate now, would out shoot the Avalanche, adding two goals, but goalie Colton 'Colt 45' Van Maaron would shut the door late in the third period. Dallas 'Cowboy' Bristow adding one in the third, the Avalanche winning the game 5 to 3 and the series by four goals. Three assists for the set up specialist 'Lightning Liam'. No goals but still burning down the wing, 'Jet Stream' with three assists. Doing some great two-way play and checking, Dusty Pankiw with an assist as well.

Next up, the Avalanche will meet CNN (Crows Nest North) who have been sitting and resting waiting in the weeds! Time and dates to be determined. Let's do this!!

Big wins for Atoms

The Atom Avalanche had a shut-out in Marwayne on Saturday, winning 13-0. Jaxon Smith scored four goals and assisted on another, Remington Reynolds and Wyatt Fontaine both scored hat tricks, William Ballas added a pair and Jaxon Marcoux a single, Wyatt adding three assists and William two to the game sheet.

The Atoms' second win of the weekend came in St. Paul on Sunday, that 12-5 victory in which Wyatt scored an incredible seven goals, with William adding a hat trick and Jaxon Smith and Jesse Penner with singles.

Both of those games were played on full ice After the team has played half ice all season, they are now trying some full ice games before the season is over, Carrie Baumgardner reports.

And a big Happy Birthday going out to a very talented smooth skating defenseman on the Avalanche peewee team, Brendon 'Blueline' Haesch.

And now for the K.A. Campbell quote of the week. "A person always doing his or her best becomes a natural leader, just by example." - Joe DiMaggio

SERVUS DONATES TO PROVINCIALS - Elk Point Branch manager Jennifer Dallaire and staff member Deena Smith presented members of the Atom Avalanche team with a donation toward the Atom 'D' Provincials they will host in mid-March. Dallaire says, that Servus Credit Union "is happy to be able to contribute to our community both monetarily and by volunteering our time as well. On top of a donation of $250 my girls and I will also be working at the tournament on both Thursday and Friday selling 50/50 tickets. We know how hard it is for parents to get time away from work to volunteer during the work week so we are happy to step forward."

ContractorsThe County of St. Paul occasionally requires heavy equipment that we do not have available from our own fleet for repair, maintenance and construction of the County's infrastructure.
In order to ensure that we have a complete list of contractors in the area, the County is requesting interested contractors to provide the following information to the Public Works Department as soon as possible:

- List of equipment available
- Proof of Insurance
- Proof of WCB
- Safety program details - certificate of recognition/small employers certificate of recognition
- Contact information

Please note that in some instances experience and availability will be determining factors of which contractor is hired for the job.For further information contact Mark Chileen at

"Last year, we were only in Glendon and Bonnyville and we only had 24 teams," explained Skiba. "There was such an appetite to have more teams come on board. Last year, we sold out in two days, so teams obviously wanted to be part of it. We were lucky enough that Elk Point was willing to host us, they have some great volunteers up there, and we were able to grow to 36 (teams) this year."

Spots sold out within a week, and over 90 minor hockey teams were interested in participating.

In hopes of surpassing the $110,000 raised during the first invitational, Skiba said the goal for this year was $130,000. The total for this year wasn't tallied as of Nouvelle press time.

Bonnyville mayor Gene Sobolewski noted the tournament's success allows more funds to be raised for the cause.

"I think it's not only good for the town, but it's good for the region because we're spreading the love around."

Regardless of the results, players hit the ice to enjoy the games and give back to the Ronald McDonald House.

"It's all about the tournament, the hockey, and these kids having fun. That's what it's all about," expressed Sobolewski.

Bonnyville Pontiacs atom player, Ryder Farrer, said participating allowed him to support a charity his family used when his sister was sick.

"It's important just to show our respect for what they've done for us and all the families," he added.

This was Farrer's second time taking part in the Winterland Invitational.

Along with fundraising, the event also promotes the services that the Ronald McDonald House offers to families in need, including those living in the Lakeland.

"It's a home away from home for families that have to travel seeking treatment for their seriously ill child," Skiba detailed. "In addition to accommodations, we have a number of different programs to help alleviate financial burdens. We've got a shuttle program, a meal program... anything that we can do to help that family in their time (of need)."

With the high amount of interest in the region, Skiba believes the Winter Invitational will be hosted annually. "We're trying to have maintained growth so we can continue to have a very strong event. We don't want to grow too fast, and then lose some of the organization," she said.

In the future, they may even offer games in more arenas around the Lakeland.

"Eventually, we'll be looking into other communities. I don't know if it will be next year or not, but we're looking at expanding," expressed Skiba.
